

Dear Diary,

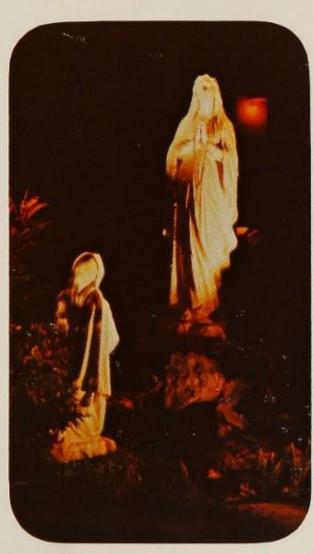

LEANNE FEINAUER

LE FLEUVE 1975 — OUR LADY OF LOURDES ACADEMY MAMI, FLORIDA

Dear Diary,

Pope Paul VI has declared the year 1975 to be a Holy Year; it will begin in Rome on Christmas Eve. The theme will be that of renewal and reconciliation. I will have a new beginning, a rebirth, a yearning to make a fresh start with God and my neighbors. There will be a healing of my sins and a new spiritual unity between God and myself. I need to reestablish a happy relationship with God, to be reconciled with Him in humility and love. We will be the New Israel, united to God by the covenant in Jesus' blood. This year will be the renewal of that covenant . . . a year of hope

Introduction . . . 1; Faculty . . . 10; Student Life . . . 32; Clubs and Activities . . . 46;

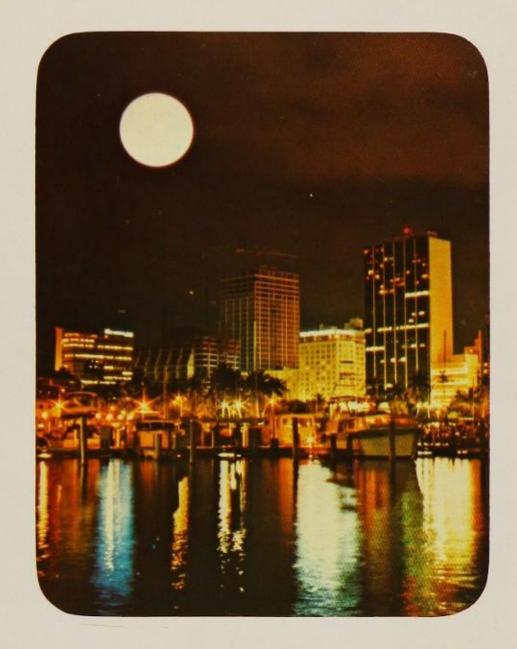

I came across this quote while reading Gibran's Prophet. It seems to express my feelings of hope for a renewal.

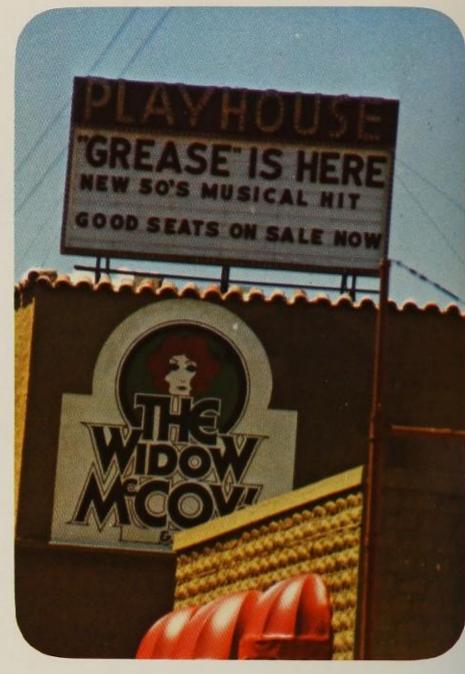

. . . "I cannot say much now about that which fills my heart and soul. I feel like a seeded field in the mid-winter, and I know that spring is coming. My brooks will run and the little life that sleeps in me will rise to the surface when called"

Entertainment

The little leisure time that I have is spent in many different and entertaining ways: plays . . . movies . . . proms . . . "nightlife"

Sports

. . . Through various sports and activities, I grasp valuable experiences in competition, striving for a goal never before imagined. I have a thirst for action and I reach for all the gusto I can get . . .

Classes

. . . So much of my life is devoted to studies. Sometimes it seems there is too much to do in too little time. But the more I learn, the more I realize how much I don't know . . .

Family

. . . As I grow older, I come to appreciate my family and realize their importance more than ever before. My parents' deep understanding is a sign that their love is always there. My brothers and sisters and I don't always get along but . . . the love is there.

As I approach the end of my high school years and realize that I will soon be on my own, I cherish every moment I spend with them

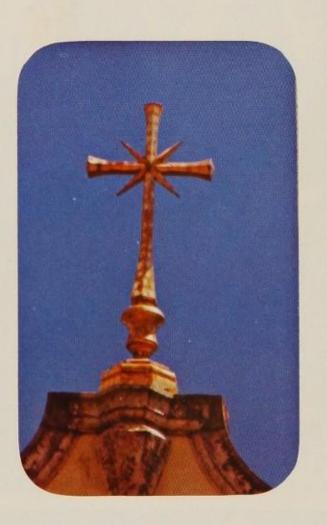

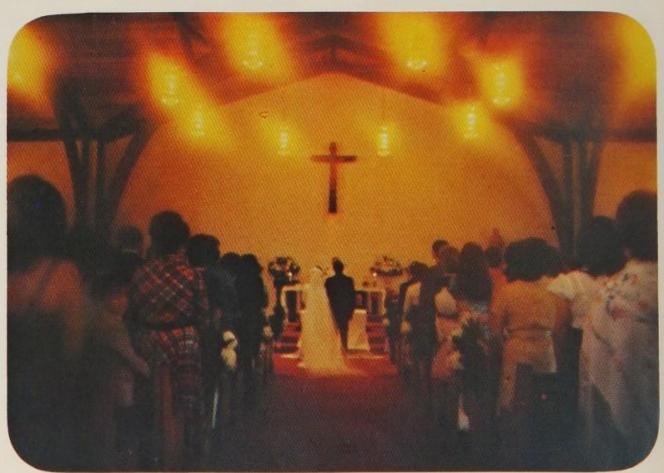

. . . Religion has such a great influence on my life that it affects every aspect of my being. Its impression will remain with me far beyond my freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior years; it is part of my total life . . .

Religion

Friends

of feelings has molded us into one. I love my friends . . . I think I'll tell them tomorrow . . .

closing sooks + long last closing sooks + long last looks most end! Take care & always be happy! (one ya,

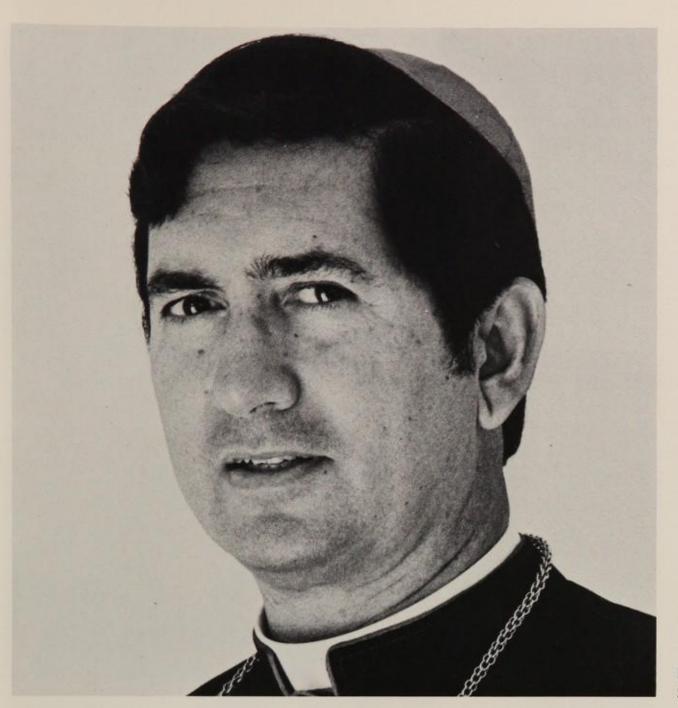

Dear Diary,

"A teacher affects eternity; she can never tell where her influence stops."

I found this quote today and it's so true. It applies not only to what she teaches us but also to the influence that goes beyond the material knowledge we learn from her. The teachers here are challenging, interesting, motivating, and understanding, all of which bring out the best in a student. You don't feel like a computer card number here but more like an individual with something to give.

Dear Diary,

What a day it's been. Dear Diary, it's been just like a dream...

Woke up too late, wasn't where I should have been.

For goodness sake, what's happening to me?

Write lightly.

Yours truly,

Dear Diary . . .

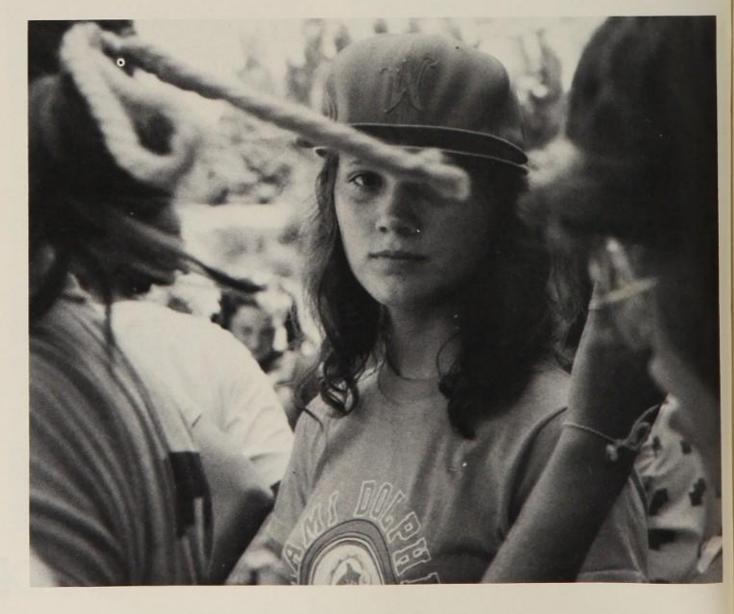

"My world is a constant confusion. Each day has its always . . ."

"I look down hallways and doorways for it to lead me there."

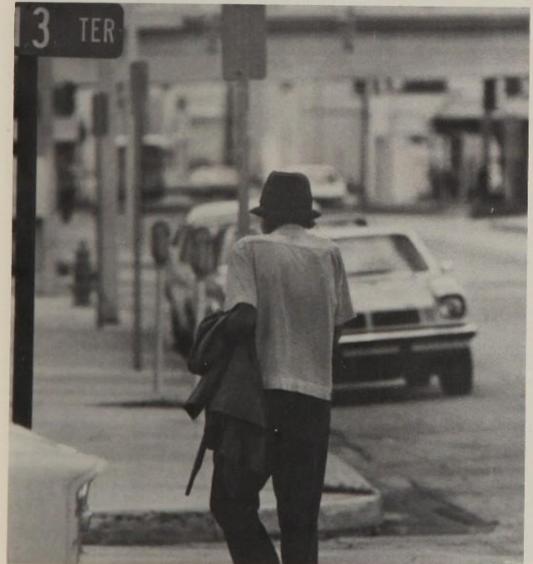

"At times I'm lost within the emptiness of me, potential in the dark."

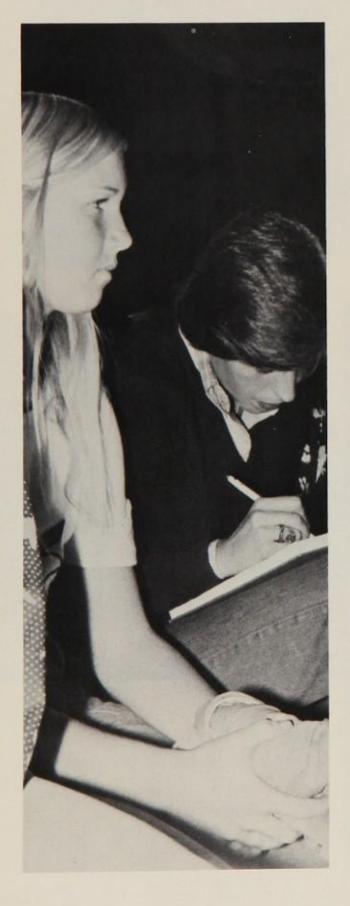

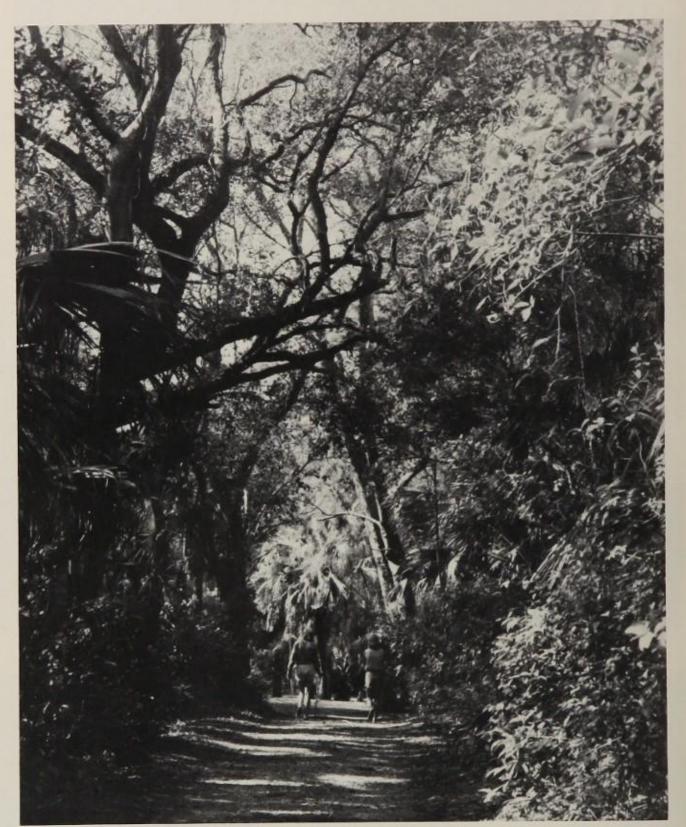

"I think I am, therefore I am, I think"

"I'm walking a different direction from most people I've met . . ."

". . . I see faces come and faces go, in circular rotation . . ."

"I have moved my lips to someone else's voice, but now I need no conversation . . ."

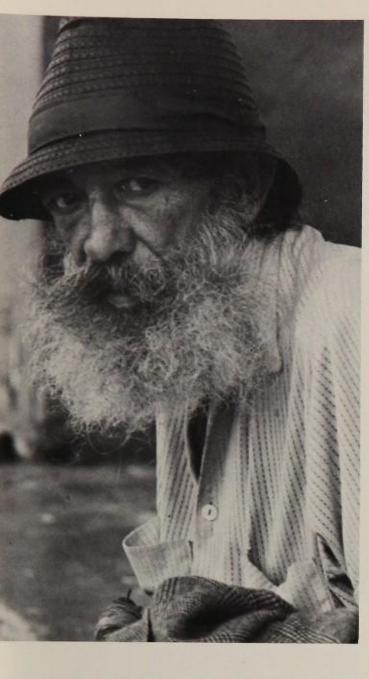

"All of my time is spent in fascination."

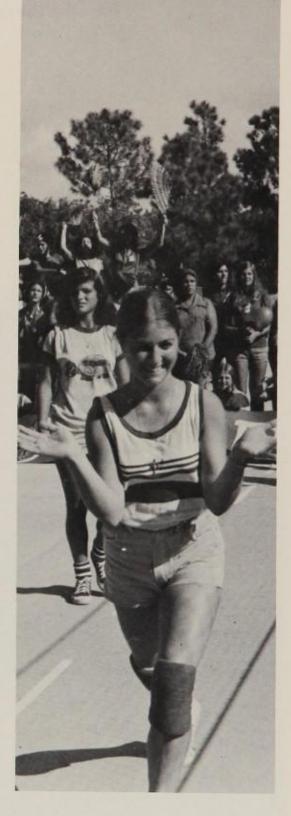

"There are no days I can borrow, no time I can buy. All things change yet remain what they are." "Oh God, I can't live a memory."

"I face piles and piles of trials with smiles, and it riles them to believe that I perceive the web I weave . . .

. . . and still, I keep on thinking free!''

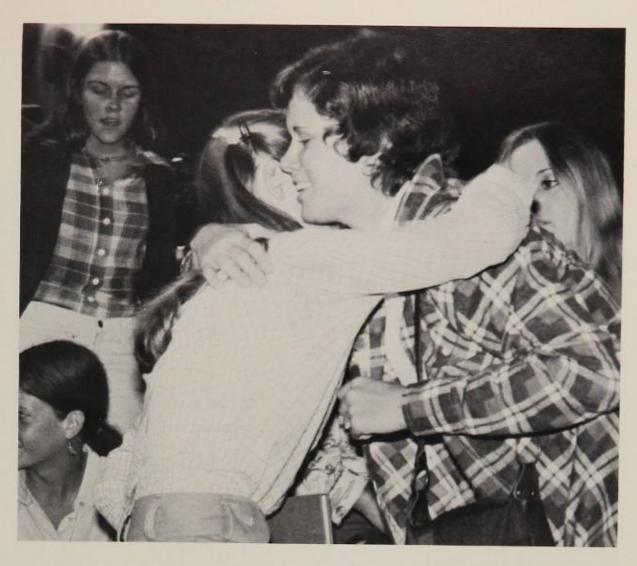

"My friends are together where the people are all gathered; all along the road I travel all my days.''

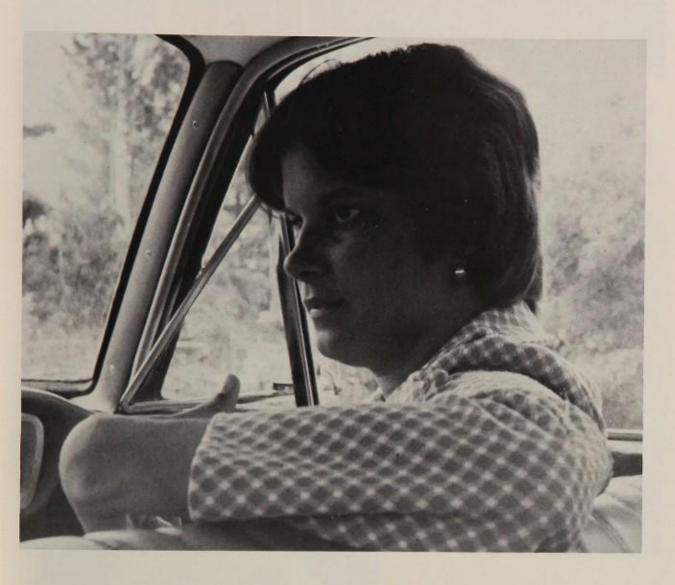

"Happy times and bygone days are never lost . . . In truth, they grow more wonderful within the heart that keeps them."

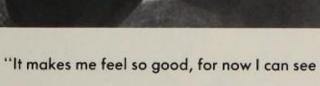

"I can't think why
I never thought of this before . . .
now I know.
Will
tomorrow be the same?"

that I have found the answer

for myself . . ."

'The appearance of things changes according to the emotions; and thus we see magic and beauty in them, while the magic and beauty are in ourselves."

Kahlil Gibran

Dear Diary,

I found this quote today, and it expressed in words what I have felt this year. I've always felt, "Wow, school really changes!," but I realize now it's me that changes. I've noticed that:

when I'm happy,

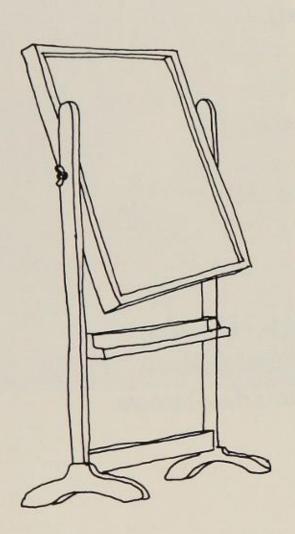

when I'm happy,
the school appears happy;
when I'm sad,
the school appears sad.

I guess the things I take part in at Lourdes, are affected by my emotions, and if there is magic and beauty in them, it is there because I feel it in me, and see it in others.

Lourdes Week

February 10-13 Dear Diary:

We all had a really good time this week. Although we didn't spend the day in a classroom, we were able to learn through the activities planned for us. The teachers organized field trips that provided both educational and fun experiences. Some of our schedules included: spending a day at Court; participating in yoga; visiting the Lowe Art Museum; learning about such hobbies as ceramics, pottery and macrame; listening to various lectures, and enjoying a career day provided for each student in her field of interest.

Father Walk said the Mass which opened the week's activities.

Archery was one of the sports provided for fun.

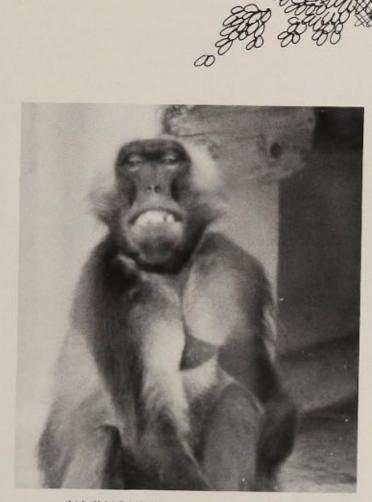

French cooking??

Even tigers get senioritis.

Well YOU'RE not so pretty either!

The Everglades provided a day for exploring and enjoying.

Seaquarium

Lourdes' girls enjoyed a day at the Magic Kingdom.

MODERATOR — Mrs. Irastorza

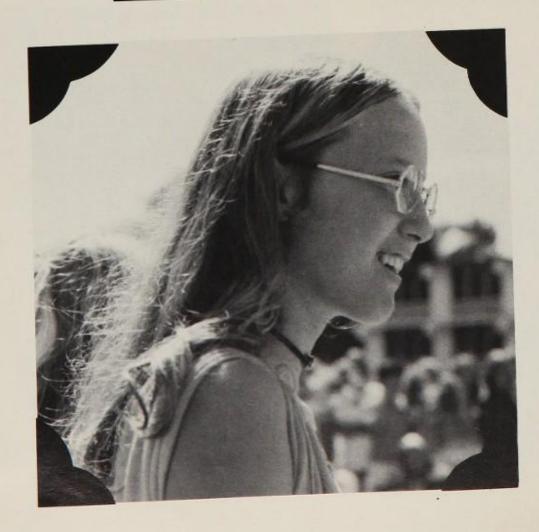

Dear Diary,

Time flies by so quickly and makes me realize how fast my high school years go by. I'll never forget starting here and being a Freshman. It was all so new to me, the beanies, big sisters, new faces . . .

By sophomore year I was now accustomed to my surroundings and had made many special friends. I became involved in more activities.

In my Junior year my biggest excitement was my Junior Prom and the anticipation of getting my ring.

As I look back on these three past years of my life I know I have done a lot of growing up and I have many different memories to cherish.

It's a shame that when we are underclassmen we take our friends for granted and it is in our Senior year that we really appreciate all that we are leaving behind.

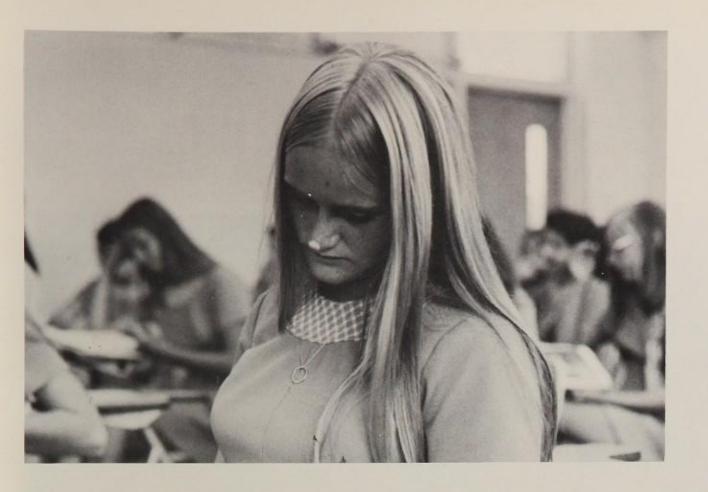

Remembering all the good times . . .

To Leanne' friendship with allereth bollows and Sincereth Brasons

i'll never forget one of our best senior privileges and how suddenly it is now gone our desks are now empty as we each seek our own destinations. still, we know they will be filled with laughter once again.

i find myself learning to love the world and those in it more and more each day. i depart now only to experience this love in greater ways.

Dear Underclassmen,

The time has finally come when we say good-bye to our friends, teachers, and high school and say hello to the world around us. The long awaited graduation day has arrived and now Lourdes is no longer a part of our present but our past. A past of memories, some good and some bad but all worthwhile remembering. Our bad experiences don't seem sad anymore but on the contrary are funny when we think about them.

As we recall our past four years we remember taking our friends, teachers and activities all for granted. Coming close to graduation we realize that we will no longer be able to tell our friends "See ya tomorrow'' because there won't be a tomorrow like yesterday no matter how hard we all try. The days you spend here and the experiences you share with others all too quickly come to an end and just when we are getting to really "know" each other we must depart and say our "so-longs" forever.

Take advantage of the opportunities offered to you here at Lourdes. You have much to learn, many people to meet and best friends to make. Live every day to your fullest because each minute is worth too much to waste. Take our advice now and don't wait until these opportunities are gone to realize it because then it will be too late.

And now before we leave, we'd like to say our final goodbyes to all the people who made up

Lourdes Academy throughout the four years we've spent here: the teachers, juniors, sophomores, our "little sisters" and especially the seniors. We might never see you again but our times together, our tears and laughter and our memories of you will never be forgotten. We wish you success in all your endeavors and ask you to always keep us in your memories.

With much love,

The Seniors of '75'

Dear Miss Marque,

We realize that working with us has been difficult but you regarded it as a challenge and made it a pleasant and fulfilling experience for us. This book will be a reminder to us of you and we hope you will always remember us by it. We see you as our friend — someone who understands what growing up is like because much of what we now feel is what you also have felt. The thoughts you have stirred in our minds have formed the basis for our future. Thank you for your patience, thoughtfulness, kindness, jest, and love. May you finally get the last sandwich.

Much Love, The Le Fleuvers
